cast countenance betokened a story of distress.

"What is your trouble?"

"I want to go to the almshouse."

"Why do you sak to go there?"

"You see, I am an old man, 6t years old.
My left leg is swollen with the rheumatism, and I am not able to work, though I am willing to. I have tried hard to get work, but failed. I cannot get even a watchman's place. I did have a pisce as clerk at $2 per week, but my boss died, and, of course, I had no more work. I want to tell you the truth. My wife and children live here, and they don't want me with them any longer. They are tired of me. My wife is seven years younger than I am, and she likes young company. I can't stand living on my friends any longer."

"Henry Sisson. I ought to tall you that, I am from Virginia and came here sixteen years ago. I lived all right on my farm, but my wife and children kept at me until I sold out and came here. Since I came here I have not done well, although my family seem to get along well enough. I have bad nine children; my youngest is now about 20 years old, and he is doing well. I have a son in Omaha, but I never hear from him. My family never tell me anything. I guess the best place for me now in my old age is the almshouse."

There was an honesty about his talk, and his face seemed to so echo his words that the officer felt it his duty to grant the required permit. The old man was an object of sympathy to all those who heard his story, and when he left the place it was with the best wishes of all. This figure will be a memorable one in the minds of those who were in this vicinity on July 16, 17, and 18. To say it was hot is putting it mildly, as everyone knows. We have been and are still prepared to make life endurable through these sweltering periods with our tropical clothing, Serges, Mohairs, Lusters in all shades, Pongees, and Seersuckers. In the latter we have reduced several lots from $1.50 to $1, and $3 to $1.75. The cause of this is: The Fat Men's Club has made a run on us and purchased all the large sizes, and gentlemen wearing a coat and vest from 33 to 38 breast measure, can have any of these sizes at $1 and $1.75, just one-half the original price.

The rush for our 10 00 suits still continues. Gentlemen wishing an elegant garment at half value should not hesitate but pay us a visit at once.

BOYS' CLOTHING, ages 14 to 18, long pants in these. We have a few lines summer-weight and medium light shades. The price of these has been put down to a remarkably low figure.
